WORKSHOP - HISTORY OF LYON - SHOP - SILKS

One session - 90 min
Visiting the houses of the Canuts is like being transported through time to discover the history of Lyon silk production from the silk worm to the present day reality of the textile industry.

A lack of historical interest, the guided tour takes you into a workshop where you can understand the invention of Jacquard, illustrated by a weaving demonstration on a 19th century hand loom. Discover the history of the Canuts, their social conditions and the way they left their mark on the city of Lyon. On selected days you can continue your visit with a guided tour of the fabriques of the Croix-Rouge.

Visit in two two shops to share the passion.

Pratiques Accessoires - Sols, Sols, accessoires et autres items bearing the France Tarte textile label. Tuesday to Friday 10am-12pm and 2pm-5pm. Saturday 10am-5pm. Pratiques Tissues - France Tarte textile label. From Thursday to Sunday 10am-12pm and 2pm to 5:30pm.

THE LUMIERE INSTITUTE

Cinema - Festival - Museum - Publishing - Library - Young members of the public -

Lyon, the most beautiful city in the world, is the birthplace of cinema. From instant photographic plates to the creation of the cinematograph, not forgetting the first color photographs, the museum's permanent exhibition goes back over the history of the Lumière family, whose innovations revolutionized aesthetics and the picture industry in the magnificent family home. Discover the extraordinary inventions of the Lumière brothers, as well as unusual objects such as sculpted toys and magic lanterns. And don't miss their most famous invention: the first cinematograph to have projected to the very first film ever shown in the world in 1895.

Opposite the museum, you'll discover the garage that housed the motor for the first film in cinematographic history. It appears in the background in the film entitled «La sortie de l'usine Lumière à Lyon» and now houses the Lumière Institute cinema. Make the most of your trip to the Museum and catch a classic film, either in the afternoon or evening, inside the theatre-film lookshop dedicated to cinema, and enjoy the Lumière cafe and its terrace.
